CAFETERIA

Our first cafeteria opened November 1, 1939 as a result of a project of the Community Council. Funds were raised by donations from the various organizations of the community. In charge of this project was Miss Kathryn Keys, home economics teacher, who with twenty uniformed girls as helpers, served 70 to 135 students daily. During the first twenty days $171 was taken in, with a net profit of $2. The following year the cafeteria was transferred from the home economics room to its present location. Miss Evelyn Rees was now in charge with Miss Ruth Ackerman as cook. The average number served was about 150, the highest being 177. The next year Miss Jane Werden replaced Miss Rees. Then in 1943, Mrs. Eleanor Jenkins became home economics teacher and manager of the cafeteria. To her, much credit is due for the building up of this important school and community project. For a time WPA women were the cooks and served about 200. After the fire, caused by faulty wiring, the cafeteria was redecorated and refurnished with modern equipment including new dishes, trays, chairs, and tables.

For the past eight years the cafeteria has been under a government plan whereby federal aid is given if a "Type A" lunch is served. A "Type A" lunch must include $\frac{1}{2}$ pint milk, protein food, fruit or vegetable, and bread and butter. This is a complete lunch providing $\frac{1}{3}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ of the day's nutritive requirements. The cafeteria is self-supporting, and with the help of this government program, we have been able to buy new equipment—a potato peeler, a stove, a dish washer, a deep freeze, and a large refrigerator.

The growing popularity of the cafeteria is shown by the increase in the number served, which is now 320 to 335 daily. Because of the well-planned and well-prepared meals, the head cook, Miss Mildred Heck, together with her assistants—Mrs. Mabel Swope and Mrs. Ada Weaver—has earned the appreciation of those served.

CUSTODIANS

Our two janitors, Mr. John Swope and Mr. Eber Martin, are familiar figures around our school. They are well-liked because of their cheerful and friendly personalities and their willingness to help whenever they can. Our health and comfort are safeguarded by the janitors' efforts to keep all the rooms at the right temperature and to keep the floors clean and tidy. Mr. Swope, excepting one year, has been employed at North Lima since 1928; and Mr. Martin, since 1947. We believe that we are indeed fortunate to have such faithful and cooperative custodians in our school.

BUS DRIVERS

The bus drivers, Mr. Paulin, Mr. Powell, Mr. Seidner, and Mr. Blosser, also help to keep the "wheels of the school" going around smoothly as they transport the pupils safely to and from school. Their conscientious efforts of regularly bringing the students safely to school in good or bad weather are greatly appreciated.

All of the buses are new this year. They were purchased by and are owned by the Board of Education.

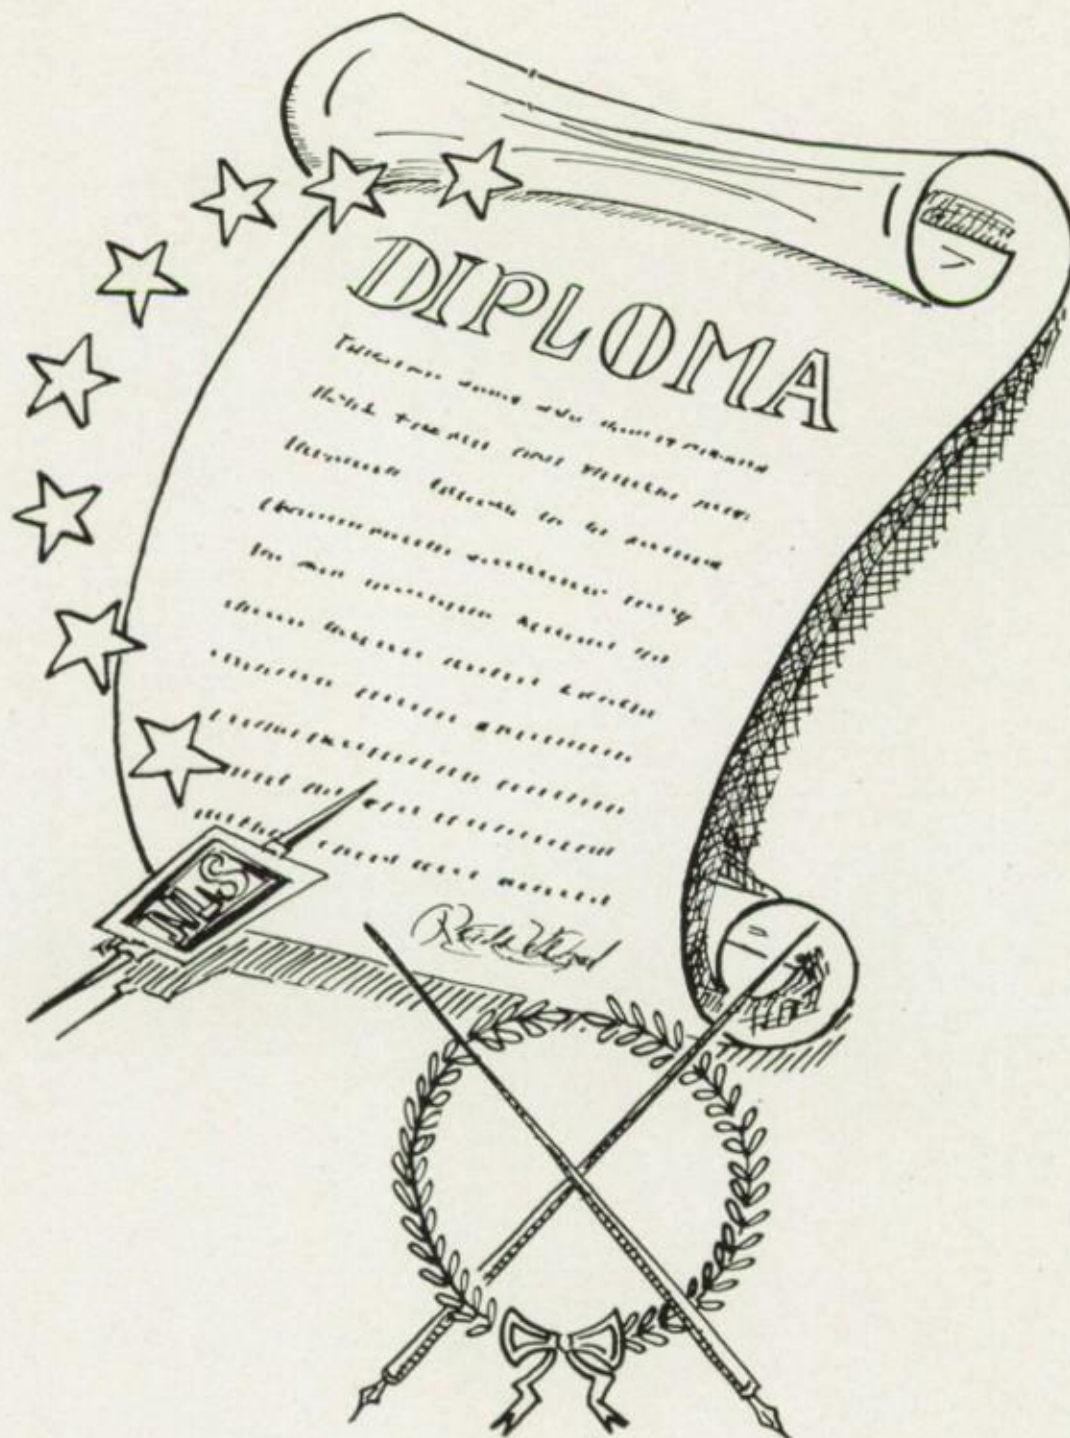

SCHOLARSHIP

One of the most important factors in any school system is scholarship. Being on the honor roll is a coveted achievement which requires work and determination. However, the satisfaction derived from attaining this goal is well worth the effort. In our school students may be on the honor roll if they have achieved a "B" average or better. This average may seem low, but many good students who work very hard would find it impossible to maintain an "A" average. Therefore this system enables hard working students to feel they have accomplished something, and encourages more students to work for high scholarship, since the honor roll is within their reach.

Another very worthwhile incentive for scholarship is the Detwiler Award. Each year Mr. Fred B. Detwiler of Columbiana presents this award to the graduating senior who has fulfilled the necessary requirements of scholarship, character, and school citizenship. The award consists of a metal plaque with the winner's name engraved on it, a cash prize of fifty dollars, and a trophy medal. Mr. Detwiler presented the first award in 1946 to Melvin Schwartz; in 1947, to Stephen Kayati; in 1948, to Francis Janosik, and last year, 1949, to Esther Heindel. At the commencement exercises this year, a senior of 1950 will join this group of winners.

As students strive to attain creditable achievements in scholarship, to develop commendable traits of character, and to practice good citizenship, they prepare themselves for future happiness and usefulness.

Class Motto

Respect for the past—progress for the present—vision for the future.

CLASS FLOWER: Red rose.

CLASS COLORS: Green and white.

THE CLASS OF 1950

Pardon us if we brag a little,
But we think we're really nifty.
Therefore, let us tell you about
The class of 1950.

Our class is very versatile.
Our members take their part
In such things as: music, sports,
Scholarship, and art.

Our class president, Dick Ward,
Is also a fine athlete.
He and Donnie Weikart make
A sports team hard to beat.

Barbara Leonhart, a whiz in lessons,
Is always a busy lass.
Our other Barbara, Barbara Culp,
Is the gayest girl in the class.

Rae and Sally, our majorettes,
Can really strut their stuff.
Cheerleaders, Eunice and Peggy, encourage
The team when the going's rough.

Quentin is gay, smart, and friendly
And say, he sure is tall.
Richard Shank loves to have fun,
But he's always a friend to all.

Lois Hitchcock keeps us laughing
With her witty quips.
While Mary Jean is a quiet girl
With lots of useful tips.

George is a very artistic fellow,
His pictures make you look twice.
Wilbur Yoder is a quiet lad.
But we all think he's nice.

Ada is the songbird in our class.
She's really a lovely soprano.
Phyllis is jolly, and we like to listen
When she plays the piano.

Esther is a whiz in typing class,
On that we all agree.
Betty Boyer's a pert little blonde,
As peppy as she can be.

Charley Horst and Tommy Crump
Are really likeable chaps.
We're glad that they are in our class,
And we don't mean perhaps.

Marian Setley is a shy little miss.
But she's a friend true-blue.
Lowell Sitler is just the opposite,
But he's a staunch pal, too.

San is quite an athlete.
In track he is a star.
Joe is also a demon in track.
We're sure he'll go quite far.

It's been said that I'm a poet.
I doubt if that is true.
You've read this poem and so I'll leave
That question up to you.

—Marilyn Lenz.

CLASS HISTORY

As the seniors march to their places on commencement night, many thoughts occupy their minds. Among these, reminiscences have their place. Some will recall tears the first day of school; others, only curiosity. It's good that Miss Swope knew how to handle these various emotions.

Among these first graders were Marilyn Lenz, capable editor of the Echo; and Barbara Culp, also a journalist, who soon took their places on the honor roll. Charles Horst and Lowell Sitler, with their happy-go-lucky ways, added a carefree note to the future class of '50. Betty Boyer, our favorite blonde, and Lois Hitchcock met and decided to be chums for the next twelve years. They have done much to keep the spirit of fun alive. Donny Weikart, of football fame, also started the educational journey here. Eunice Mellinger, destined to be both a majorette and a cheerleader, and Phyllis Staines, chief ink pourer for the Lima Lite, also took part in the varied activities. Tom Crump, another football player, and Richard Shank, always ready with a prank, rounded out the class then.

The next year brought this group together again and added Sally Wallace, peppy leader of our majorettes, and Marian Setley, with a quiet touch, for balance. Miss Lawn succeeded in teaching us enough to send us on to third grade.

Miss Horst patiently tutored us in both the third and fourth grades, during which time we grew quite fond of her.

Then again in the fifth grade, we met not only Miss Lehman, but Rae Lamb, whose artistic ability has proved well that good things come in small packages. Barbara Leonhart, editor of the Lima Lite, also joined the class of '50.

Two more athletes, Joe and Santino Lamancusa, decided to make North Lima their home, and so took their places with us in the sixth grade. Upstairs in Mrs. Brady's room, we felt quite grown-up, but found there was still much to learn.

Having study hall for home room and changing classes in our first year of junior high was really thrilling. Mr. Stover, our home room teacher, seemed to understand and helped us over the rough spots in this transition. Quentin Clingerman, known for many achievements, but especially fine scholarship, became a classmate then.

Achievement of achievements! We had reached the eighth grade, just one step away from high school! With Mrs. Perry's kind supervision and our new friend, Mary Jean Stonerook's unassuming charm, to add a lift, we soon took this step. The summer was spent dreaming of the beginning of our last four years of school.

Undreamed of, though, was the horror of initiation. Thank goodness, we all survived to enjoy the marvelous success of our first skating party and the several class parties held that year.

Three new students joined us when we were sophomores. They were Ada Dinsio, a vocal asset in the music department; George Creelman, a whiz at both the piano keyboard and the drawing board; and Wilbur Yoder, "seen, but not heard." With Mr. Burkholder as advisor, our first try at salesmanship came in the form of a very successful magazine subscription drive. We held another skating party at Kelly's and, with the freshmen, had a hayride and a weiner roast.

The much anticipated junior year proved just as busy and exciting as we had expected. With two new arrivals, Esther Conrad, a friendly miss; and Dick Ward, immediately elected as class president, we began our studies. As money-making projects we sold fountain pens and sweatshirts, and sponsored another skating party. Also, at some of the games, and during the noon-hour, we sold popcorn, candy, and potato chips. On April 1, 1949, a cast of twelve, directed by Miss Ruth Warrick, presented "The Big Help," our junior play. Producing it was the most enjoyed event of the year. The junior-senior banquet committee planned an interesting program for the big night and followed up with a theater party, to add pleasant memories for the seniors of '49. We were glad to have Mr. Popelka to help us through our troubles and triumphs.

At last we were seniors. Yes, busy, happy seniors. The last new member of our class was Peggy Arkwright, vivacious cheerleader. Our sponsor was Miss Stackhouse, who did much to help us achieve our many hopes and plans. Our many activities were getting our pictures taken, sponsoring a skating party, ordering our invitations, planning a public dinner, planning for our trip, editing the Lima Lite, publishing the Echo, and presenting the senior play, "Ananias Bill." The last big event, the junior-senior banquet, brought us very close to commencement, and now as we march down, with diplomas in hand, these memories rest in a special place in our hearts, to be looked over again and again in future years.

—Barbara Ann Leonhart.

PROPHECY

On New Year's Day, 1960, a happy reunion of the Senior Class of 1950 is taking place in the beautiful home of Dr. Barbara Culp, nationally known surgeon and heart specialist.

Marilyn Lenz, Literary Editor of the "Saturday Review of Literature," who has written poetry for the most widely published magazines, is helping the hostess pass out canapes.

Artist and Art Critic, Rae Lamb, is discussing her painting, "Stream of Life," with Professor Lois Hitchcock, author of the Pulitzer Prize winning book, "Life's Glimmer." Approaching them is Representative Quentin Clingerman, who is under Congressional fire because of his bill to cut governmental expenditures by ten billion dollars.

Helping themselves to the canapes are, Charles Horst, inventor of a "steel bath" in which iron ore is very quickly smelted, and Esther Conrad, his private secretary, who holds the nation's typing record.

Phyllis Staines, Emily Post of today, and Ada Dinsio, opera singer and restaurant owner, are talking over some of the points in Phyllis's newest book, "Etiquette for Youth."

Modeler of the EuNice Majorette Costume is Sally Wallace, famous for the majorette schools established throughout the country. Sally is commenting on the costume to Eunice Mellinger, who owns the Mellinger Dress Shoppes, and Mary Jean Stonerook, who has developed a new and very effective method for treating cancer.

Lowell Sitler, president of the Sitler Oil Company, and Dr. Dick Ward, dentist, and inventor of a tooth cleaning mouth wash, are listening to an explanation of a new square dance created by Peggy Arkwright. Peggy, president of the Arkwright Square Dancing Studios, has contributed much toward developing better recreational benefits for the Americans.

Pine Tree Grower Richard Shank and hotel-owner Marian Setley are discussing fire prevention. Richard is the author of that well-known book, "Forest Conservation for Today." Marian is the owner of a chain of safe, comfortable hotels.

Thomas Crump, president of the North Lima Trucking Company, which hauls building materials to all parts of the United States, and his pert, blonde secretary, Betty Boyer, originator of a dictaphone, is posing for a picture. Taking the picture is famous news photographer, George Creelman, who has won first place in the National Photographers' Contest for the second time in succession.

Sitting at the piano is Barbara Ann Leonhart, concert pianist, who, having been under the instruction of Jose Iturbi, has held concerts in many large cities in the United States and Canada.

Standing by the piano are Joseph and Santino Lamancusa and Wilbur Yoder. Joe and San, expert agriculturalists, own a chain of farms throughout Ohio. Wilbur, owner of a large fruit farm, is the president of the National Horticultural Association of America.

Now, all gather around the piano to sing "Auld Lang Syne."

As they leave for their various homes they encourage each other to keep on being good American citizens, who try to make our country more democratic and more prosperous, and our world more peaceful.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Graduating Class of 1950, being of a well-balanced mind, healthy physique, and in much better temper than usual, do hereby bequeath the following possessions:

ARTICLE I. To our teachers, we extend our gratitude for their interest and other aid we received from them during the twelve years of our education. To Mr. Himes, we leave the task of figuring up the inheritance tax on this will.

ARTICLE II. To the seniors in the oncoming year, we bequeath our places on the Honor Roll, our skill in all sports, any unfinished lollipops or unfinished money business, our ways of bluffing the teachers, and any other possessions.

ARTICLE III. We also leave the following talents and peculiarities that made the Class of "50" so distinct and different:

Dick Ward leaves his excellent ability of class leadership to Lowell Wellman.

Barbara Ann Leonhart leaves her sympathy and any tricks that she has learned with regard to getting the Lima Lite material in on time to Dorothy Cearns.

Lois Hitchcock bequeaths her ability of getting along with the male population of the school to Nanette Lingo.

To Kenny Roller, George Creelman leaves both his management of the basketball team and his roving eye.

Betty Boyer leaves her cute grin and winning personality to Marcella Walczesky.

Donald Weikart leaves his Ford Coupe to the Smithsonian Institute.

Ada Dinsio bequeaths her musical voice to anyone who promises to attend Glee Club faithfully.

Wilbur Yoder leaves his quiet, dignified manner to Johnny Prosser, with the wistful hope that it will be used.

Phyllis Staines bequeaths her ability to think up excuses for getting out of fourth period to Johnny Bartholomew.

Santino and Joe Lamancusa will their ability to have cinder bruises, and "charlie horses" to Fred Nemenz and Gene Weisenberger, who are also on the track team.

Sally Wallace leaves her leadership of the majorettes to Beverly Barger.

Marilyn Lenz leaves all her headaches and sleepless nights to next year's editor of the Echo.

Eunice Mellinger leaves here, very thankful to be going.

Mary Jean Stonerook leaves with a lot of knowledge in her head.

Esther Conrad leaves her curly locks to Delight Arkwright.

Richard Shank leaves his beautiful curly eyelashes to any girl who would be very proud to own them.

Lowell Sitler bequeaths his love of school (at vacation time) to Dwight Unger.

Peggy Arkwright hates to leave anything since she is making good use of all her talents, but perhaps some melancholy junior can make use of her sunny disposition.

Tom Crump bequeaths his ability to fall asleep and get away with it in government class to anyone who thinks he can use it.

Quentin Clingerman insists on leaving his public speaking ability to Bill Sauerwein.

Rae Lamb leaves her ability to design attractive Lima Lite covers to Art Spencer.

Marian Setley leaves, taking her silent charm with her.

Barbara Culp leaves hoping to acquire soon a nurse's cap.

Charles Horst bequeaths his teasing ways to Bill Collins.

We nominate and appoint Mr. Ward, our superintendent, to be executor of this, our lost will and testament.

Signed, sealed and witnessed by the Senior Class of 1950 of North Lima High School.

In Memoriam

The untimely death of Arthur Bauman has greatly saddened us all. We shall always remember his happy smile, friendly manner, and cheerful attitude. His participation in many of the school activities and his studious habits are missed by both the teachers and the student body. Thus we feel as Fitz-Green Halleck did when he said:

“None knew thee but to love thee,
Nor named thee but to praise.”

THE SECOND SEASON of North Lima's eleven-man football team was a remarkable advancement over the first. The team completed the year with a .500 average, winning three and losing the same. Coach Popelka switched the team from the "single wing" of the previous year, to a "T" formation. As a result this made possible the "quick opening" plays which proved to be a great success in gaining yardage. Another new device was put into use by North Lima for the first time—a modified "platoon system" which is very popular with college teams. Some of the team's success was due to the assistance of a second coach, Mr. Mort, who instructed the linemen, giving Popelka more time with the backfield. Rigorous calisthenics and training showed their merit to the squad, as no serious casualties were received during the entire season. The team loses seven members with the 1950 graduating class, but the prospect for future teams is very bright.

FOOTBALL PERSONALITIES

George (Bradford) Creelman—End

George was our trusty end who could be seen floating down the field in conquest of a pass from one of our backs. He could be counted on to pull in that pass and head for a touchdown when we needed it most.

Joseph (Joe) Lamancusa—Tackle

Joe was our man who was in on every play fighting his heart out for that tackle. He often caught the man in the backfield and threw him for a loss. Joe's ability to get in and break up the plays sent many a team to the showers unhappy.

Santino (San) Lamancusa—End

San was our defensive end who stopped the opposition cold when they attempted to run around his end. The opposing passer found it hard to get his passes away with San ploughing into him.

Donald (Don) Weikart—Tackle

Don was a tackle and line backer. His bone-crushing tackles saved the day more than once for "Old Lima Hi." His talent will be sorely missed behind the line next year.

Dick (Richard) Ward—Halfback

Dick's brilliant running and passing spearheaded our drive to a successful season. He set an example for his successors at the halfback spot with his never-die spirit which will be very hard to equal.

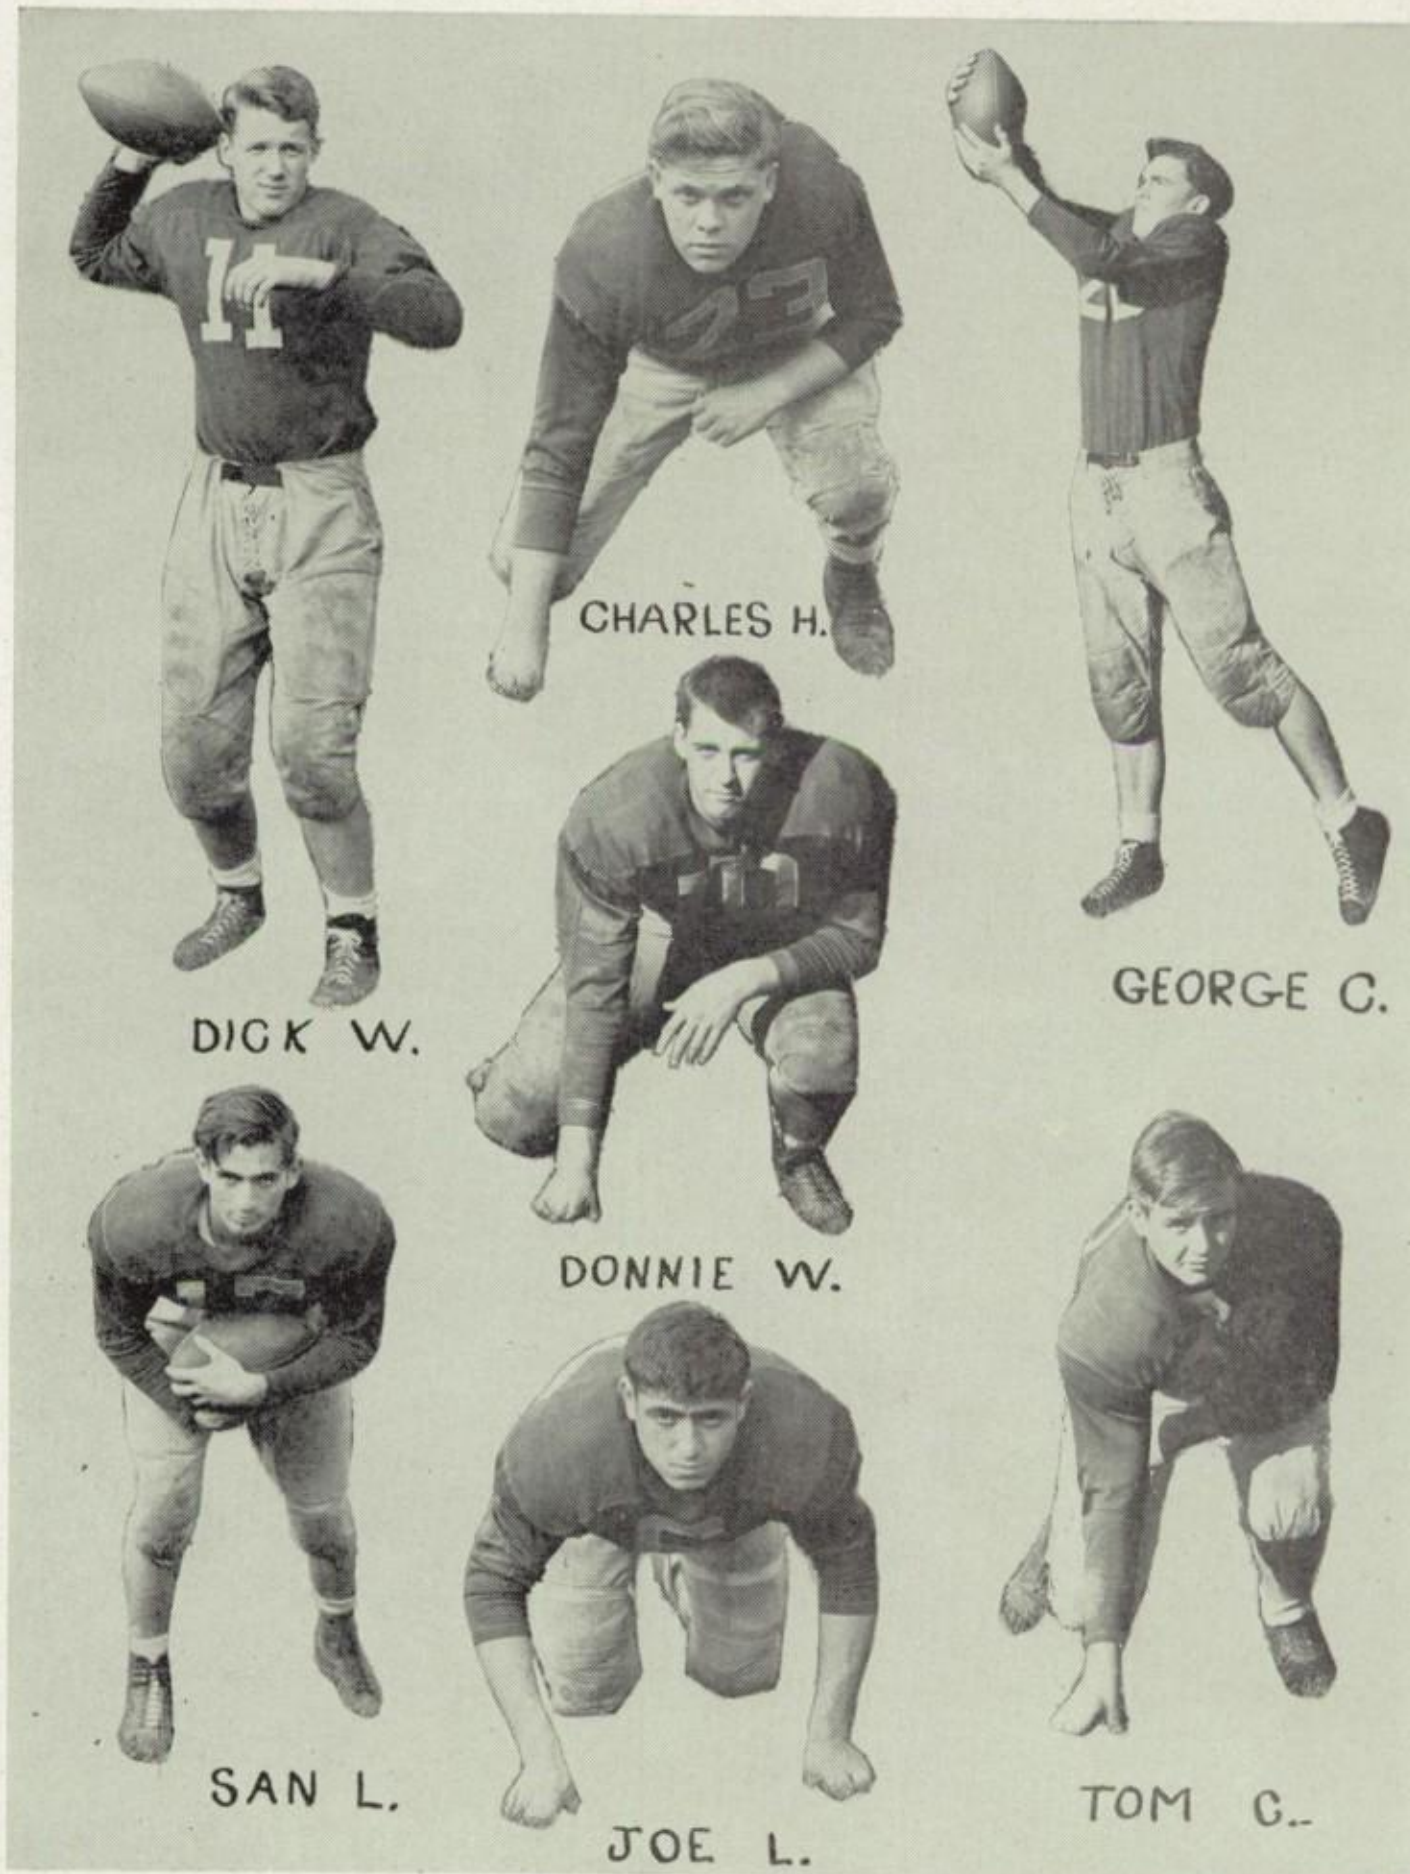

Charles (Chuck) Horst—Guard

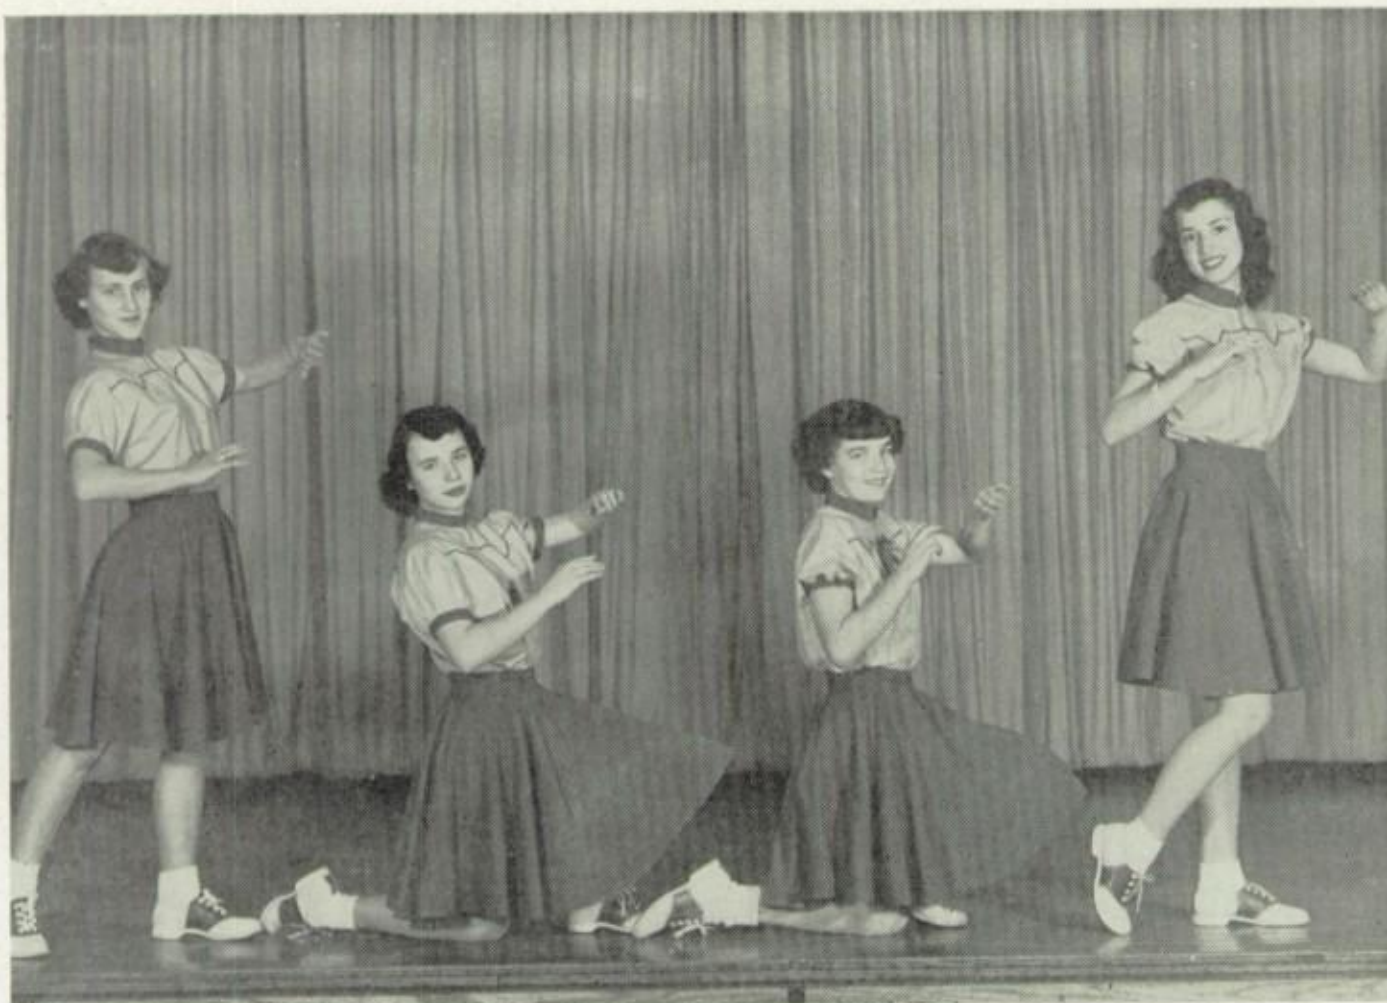

Chuck, although not so tall, could pack power in his position at guard. His humor and lively spirit kept the team sharp and ready to go all the time. Chuck's fighting spirit will be missed in next year's team.

Thomas (Tom) Crump—Tackle

Tom plugged the gap at defensive tackle very well with his bulk and skill. He played a hard game from beginning to end, never quitting until the final whistle blew. Next year's football team will miss him very much.

SENIOR GRIDDERS

CHEERLEADERS

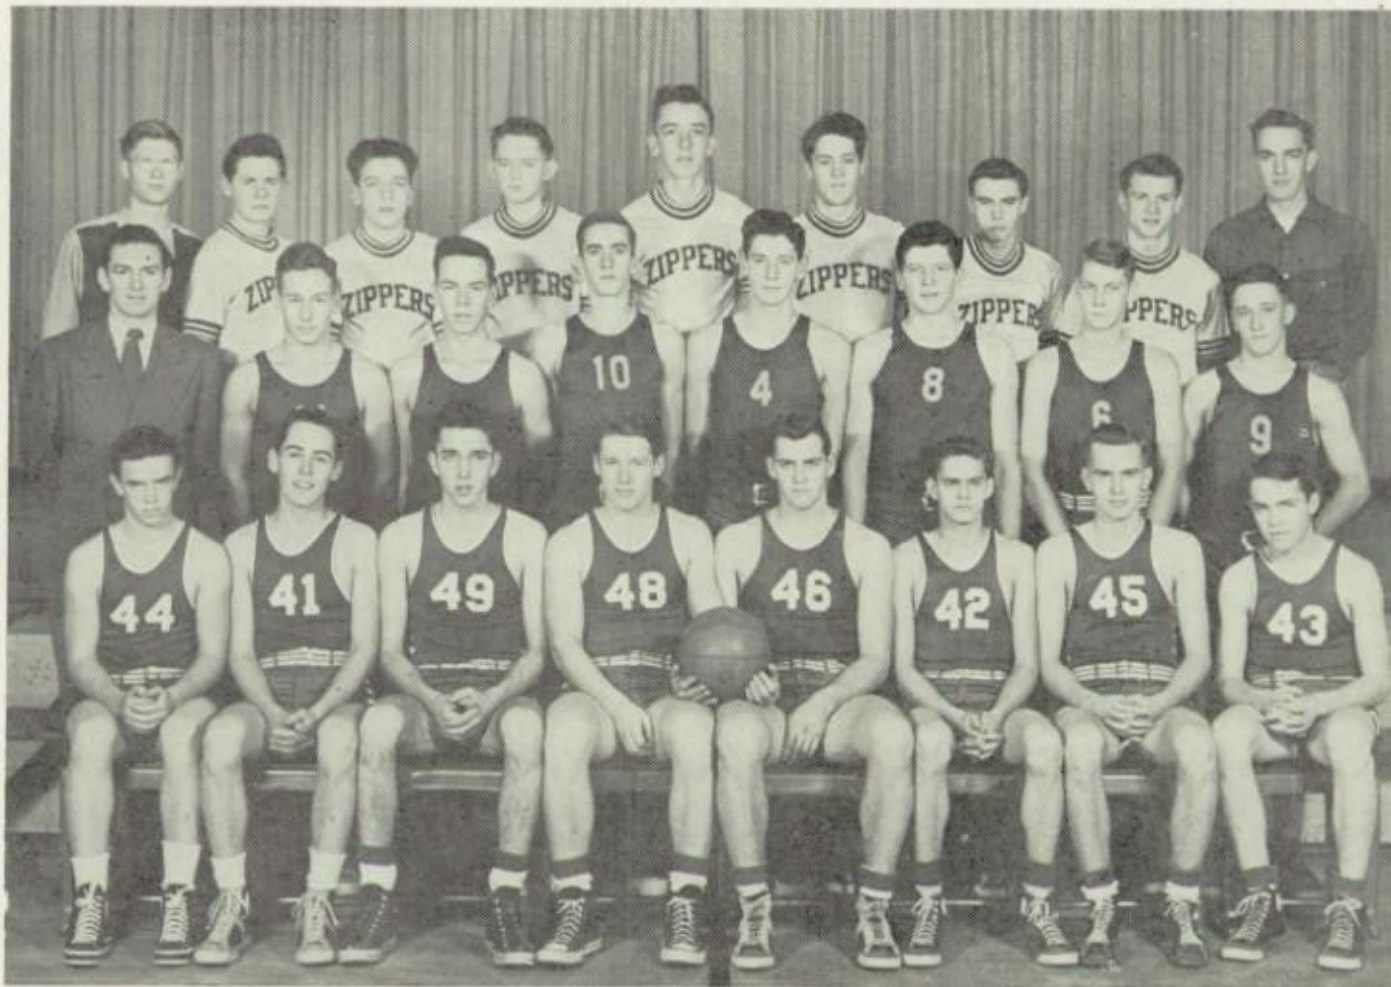

Our peppy cheerleaders, Carole Roller, Peggy Arkwright, Ila Mae Mains and Eunice Mellinger did much to spur the team on to victory and to promote school spirit and sportsmanship. They conducted pep meetings to teach the students new cheers, and to arouse their enthusiasm. The snappy outfits which the girls wore created a bright spot at every game. We all felt that the cheerleaders did a good job and we were proud of them for their untiring efforts.

MAJORETTES

Our graceful majorettes—Beverly Barger, Rae Lamb, Maxine Smith, Mary Louise McGinnis, and Sally Wallace—with their bright uniforms, provided many entertaining interludes at our home basketball games. Their combined acrobatic skill and baton-twirling ability made them an outstanding feature of our school. We believe that our majorettes gave other schools a good impression of us, and we appreciate the efforts they put forth.

VARSITY CAGERS

With only two of eleven lettermen returning this season, the 49-50 Zippers, led by Co-captains Dick Ward and Don Weikart, steadily improved throughout the year and finished with a rush, capturing runner-up honors in Mahoning County. The boys possessed a fighting spirit which more than made up for their lack of experience and made them a worthy foe for any team.

Next year's prospects are bright with: a more veteran team in the offing, many promising reserves moving up, and help from our 1950 County Junior High Champs. This year's reserve team won 9 games out of 19.

Two Zippers were again selected on the coaches' All-County Team: Dick Ward, a senior, and Roy Weaver, a junior.

BASKETBALL PERSONALITIES

Dick Ward

Finishing his last two years of varsity basketball for North Lima, Dick was one of our constant scoring threats. Although Dick isn't exceptionally tall, he showed up brilliantly at both backboards.

Donald (Donnie) Weikart

Donnie, also closing his varsity years, has shown great fight both in spirit and in rebounding. Although Donnie had a hard time breaking the fouling habit at first of the year, when he did break it, he was a deciding factor in many of Lima's games.

Roy Weaver

Here is a boy who shines equally on both defense and offense. His ball-handling ability not only dumfounded his opponents but usually made Roy a high scorer. Roy will be a valuable asset to the varsity squad next year.

Fred (Gus) Nemenz

Being one of the taller boys on the team this year, Gus used his height to snag the rebounds. His push shot from the side hardly ever missed. Gus was a valuable player and was a constant point maker.

John (Johnny) Morey

Johnny is a boy with a great deal of talent in every phase of basketball. His long shot and his one hand shot broke the heart of many of his opponents this year. Since Johnny is only a sophomore, he will be a sparkplug on the varsity during the coming years.

Dwight (Ogie) Unger

Dwight is a good player to have around when the scores are close or when time is running out. Ogie has that spark of humor that keeps up the team's morale. In the coming year Ogie promises to be a very active player.

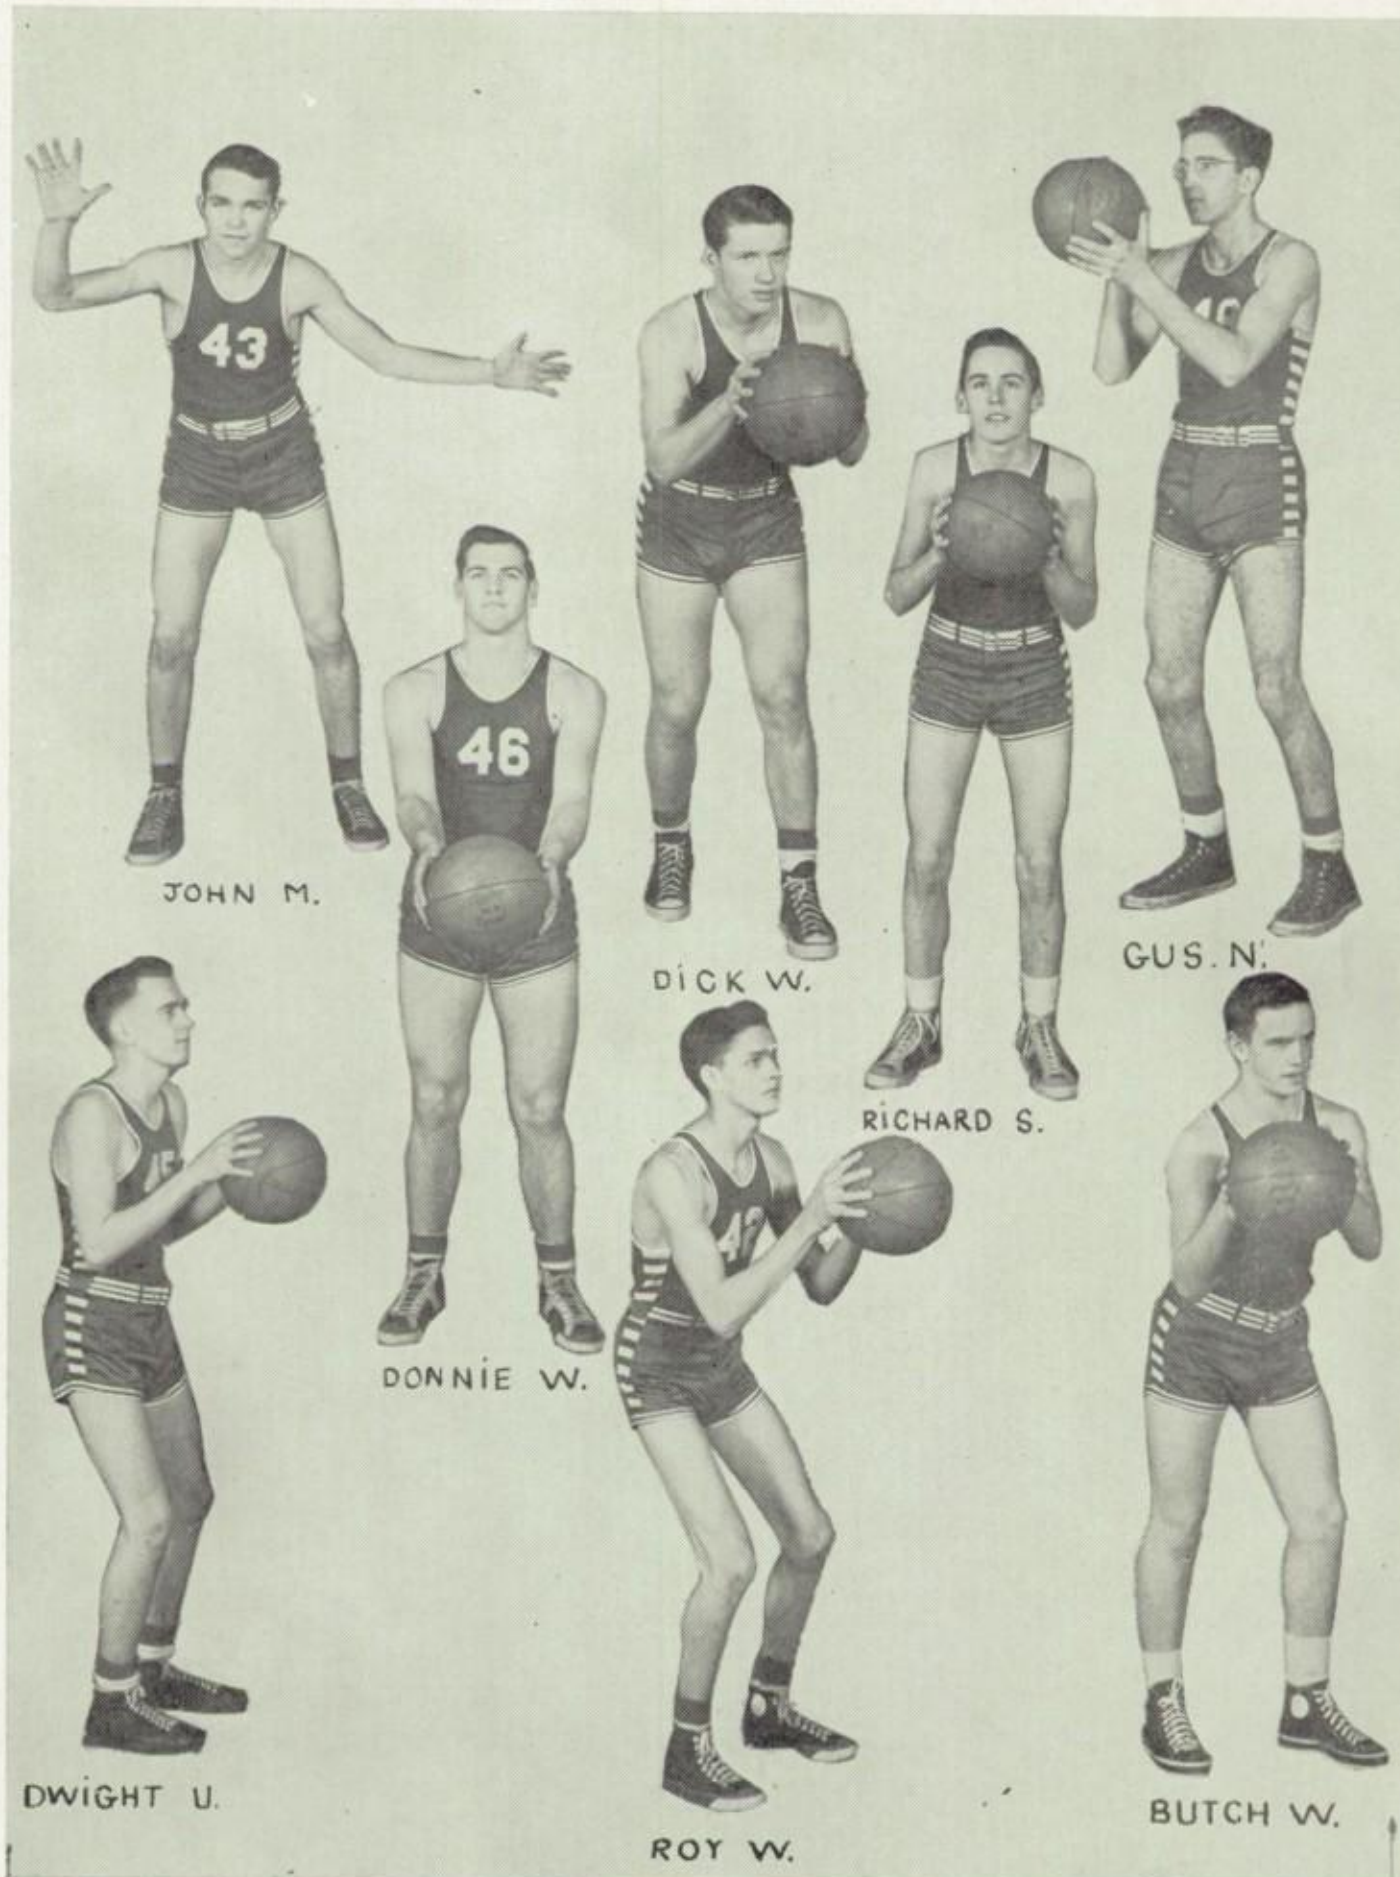

Richard Shank

Although not having seen too much action this year, Richard was always a trusty substitute. At his guard position Richard used his long shot ability to a great advantage. He is one of the graduating seniors and will be missed next year.

Carl (Butch) Webster

As the only freshman on the squad this year Butch was a familiar figure on the hardwoods. Butch played his first year of basketball in a respectable manner and will be a very valuable player in the coming years.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

Male voices blended in song under the direction of Miss Ruth Stevenson as the Boys' Glee Club sang, "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen," "The Parade of the Wooden Soldiers," and many other favorite songs, both old and new. At the Community Institute the boys sang "Erie Canal." In the spring the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs presented the operetta "Gypsy Rover."

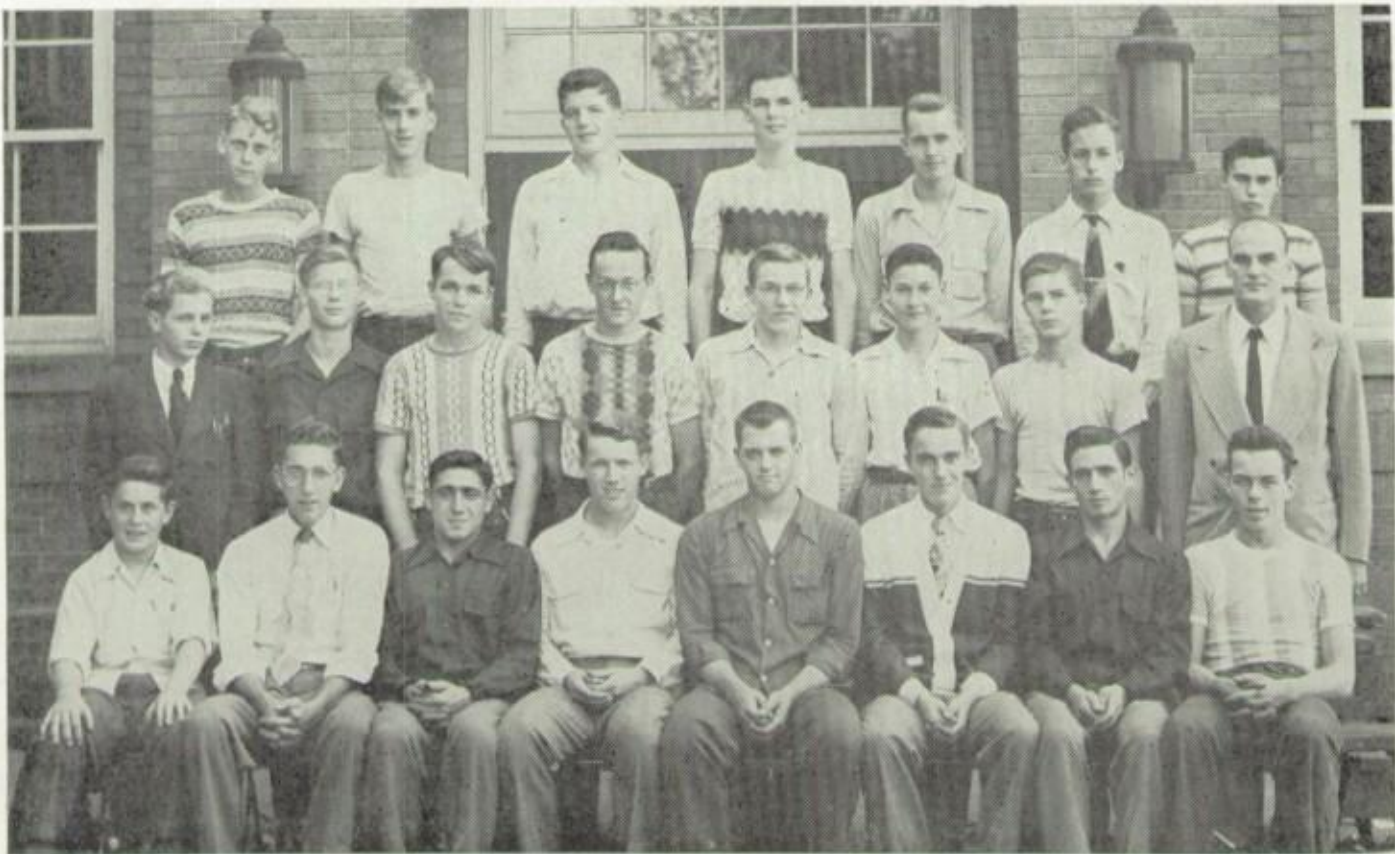

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

Once a week the Girls' Glee Club met for instruction in vocal music. This girls' chorus contributed its services to the community as well as to the school. At the Prince of Peace Contest the club sang "Whispering Hope" and "Green Cathedrals;" at the Community Christmas Program, "White Christmas" and "Toyland;" at the Community Institute, "The Big Brown Bear" and the "Italian Street Song." The Girls also participated in the high school operetta, directed by Miss Stevenson.

TRI-HI-Y

The Tri-Hi-Y, formerly the Keen Teens, under the able direction of its sponsor, Mrs. Vyvyan Burge, and its officers, Rae Lamb, Marilyn Lenz, Lois Hitchcock, and Elizabeth Nemenz, carried out its purpose of creating, maintaining, and extending throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian Character. For the good of the community, the Tri-Hi-Y gave Thanksgiving baskets to the needy and made various articles for the Junior Red Cross. For the good of the school, the Tri-Hi-Y endeavored to promote clean speech, clean sports, clean scholarship, and clean living. Parties, swim night, and civic day were other activities of the club.

HI-Y

To create, extend, and maintain throughout the school and community a high standard of Christian character has been the objective of the North Lima Hi-Y Club. The club has accomplished this by having its members participate in "gym patrol" and by arranging for ministers to speak to the high school.

The Hi-Y Club, under the guidance of Mr. Popelka and its officers—Donald Weikart, Dick Ward, George Creelman, and Joseph Lamancusa—carried out a six-weeks' civic program ending with Civic Day. The boys also attended "swim nights" and held parties with the Tri-Hi-Y.

THE ECHO

In this twelfth volume of the Echo, the annual staff has endeavored to record the hopes, the joys, the enthusiasms and the achievements of the students of North Lima High. With our editor, Marilyn Lenz, assistant editor, Quentin Clingerman, and Manager Dick Ward, we have worked together to achieve this purpose under the guidance of Miss Stackhouse. The many pages of group pictures and of vivid snaps, incorporate the memories of cordial friendships and happy school days.

We wish to express our appreciation to the advertisers who, by their contributions, have made it possible for us to publish this Echo of 1950.

LIMA LITE STAFF

This year's staff has attempted to present, clear and unbiased, reports of the year's events as they happened. The feature articles and the student opinion polls were included for added interest. Many fine poems were contributed for literary work. Our exchange news from other school papers has added much to round out the Lima Lite. The editor, Barbara Leonhart, wishes to express her appreciation for the fine cooperation received in the publishing of the paper and to Mrs. Burge, our advisor, for her help.

EVENTS OF THE YEAR

SEPTEMBER 6. The first day of school and the first assembly. All right now, not everyone can have a back row seat!

8. Assignment of lockers. O.K. Juniors, move over. Seniors first, you know!
9. Election of cheerleaders. Eunice Mellinger, Peggy Arkwright, Carole Roller, and Ila Mae Mains are our pretty foursome for this year.
14. Freshman Initiation. Paddling line, food, snake dance. More fun!
16. First Tri-Hi-Y meeting. Also first football game of the season. A wonderful victory over Springfield.
16. Congratulations! Mr. Mort became the proud papa of a baby girl.
23. Hi-Y meets for the first time this year.
24. Another game, another victory. We took Malvern.
25. "Take a deep breath. Hold it! That's all." Yes, we had X-rays taken today.
30. First issue of the Lima Lite. Good issue. Nice going, staff.

OCTOBER 1. Woe is me! Our first loss of the season. It was to Struthers.

5. Lucky agriculture class went on a tour at the Canfield Experimental Farm this morning.
7. The high school had an assembly today. Mr. Ramsey—a reporter, world traveler, and lecturer—spoke to us. Quite interesting.
8. A beautiful day for a football game, but we lost to Canfield.
11. Group pictures taken today. My, my, how nice everyone looked!
12. The Lima Lite staff went to a journalism meeting at Sebring High School.
15. North Lima met Goshen in a football game, but bad luck. We lost.
17. The Hi-Y sponsored a devotional service this morning. Reverend Zechial spoke.
19. Hear all the groans? That's right. Report card time.
20. Three cheers for the teachers! Only a half-day of school because of a teachers' meeting.
21. Senior skating party. Nice crowd, lots of fun!
27. Football game with Jackson. We came through with flying colors.
28. Whole day off. Another teachers' meeting. Second issue of the Lima Lite.
29. Community Hallowe'en party at the school. The guests certainly enjoyed themselves.
31. Both the Juniors and Seniors had Hallowe'en parties.

NOVEMBER 1. The Seniors traveled to Alliance to have their graduation pictures taken. Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y officers went to a meeting at Columbiana.

4. The "Melody Four," Swiss bell-ringers, entertained the students. Their music was quite unique and lovely.
4. The Juniors presented their play, "We Shook the Family Tree." Good acting.
5. Teachers and Board members enjoyed an evening of fun with the McGregors and Wards.
8. Basketball Preview at Berlin Center.
9. Spectators witnessed a hilarious game of Donkey Basketball at the school auditorium.
10. The annual Prince of Peace Contest was held. Dick Ward was the winner.
11. Armistice Day. No school.
11. A nice crowd attended the Junior Skating Party. Everyone had a good time.
14. Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y initiation party and Sadie Hawkins Day square dance. Mock marriage, laughs, and fun!
18. The Junior Carnival went over with a bang.
21. The football players and cheerleaders were the honored guests at a spaghetti dinner at the school.
22. The first basketball game turned out to be quite a thriller, but we finally emerged victorious over Springfield.
23. The fifth and sixth graders presented a very good Thanksgiving Operetta, "The Inn of the Golden Cheese."
25. Lima Lite was on sale today. It's bigger and better every time.
25. & 26. The Men's Club presented a play, "Friday the 13th." Quite a hit.
29. We beat Goshen in an exciting basketball game.
30. Report card time again. Dear me!

DECEMBER 2. Yea Lima! We won again. Over Bessemer this time.

3. Oh, oh! We got set back in a basketball game with Fairfield.
6. Another loss. Too bad, but then Lowellville is pretty tough.
7. The Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y went to a joint swim night at the Y.M.C.A.
9. Hurray, back on the win trail again. We took Waterford this time.

GOING DOWN ?

JANIE

10. The Mothers' Club sponsored a fun night at school. It really was fun. Square dancing and all.
13. We met Columbiana in a basketball game. We lost.
14. The Lima Lite staff attended another journalism meeting at Hayes Junior High.
15. Another Senior highlight. Name cards and invitations were ordered.
19. The school, churches, Mothers' Club, and Men's Club sponsored a Community Christmas program. It was a very worthwhile evening.
20. Sebring took us in a game here. Too bad, fellows.
22. The first and second grades presented a very "cute" Christmas assembly, "The Toys That Had to Wait."
23. We beat Fitch in a game. Beginning of our Christmas vacation.
25. My, wasn't Santa good to everyone? This was really a nice Christmas.
27. The Alumni conquered the Varsity at the alumni game. There was a lively square dance afterwards.

JANUARY 2. First day of school in 1950.

6. We started out the New Year right by defeating North Jackson in a game.
10. Oops. Lost a game to Lisbon.
10. Oh, that final day is getting close. Seniors were measured for caps and gowns.
13. Our cagers dropped a game to Springfield.
16. Our team certainly is unpredictable. We won over Poland.
- 18 & 19. These two days were filled with very enjoyable sessions of the Community Institute.
19. The Government class added to their store of knowledge by witnessing a court trial.
20. The words on everyone's lips are, "May I have a picture?" Senior pictures arrived.
20. The Zippers bowed to Berlin Center.
24. The Hi-Y Basketball team beat Canfield.
25. Hi-Y teams' luck changed. They lost to Lisbon.
27. We dropped another game. This time to Wellsville.
28. The high school presented a radio program over WFMJ. It was very good!
28. Fun night sponsored by the Mothers' Club. Wonderful crowd and a wonderful time.

FEBRUARY 1. The entire school assembled to see a magic show. It certainly was bewildering.

3. Lima bowed to Canfield in a close, exciting game.
6. The seniors sponsored a steak dinner at the school. It went over very well.
8. North Lima and Greenford tangled in a hard-fought basketball game.
10. The Zippers met Lowellville for the last home basketball game of the season.
11. Another Fun Night was sponsored by the Mothers' Club. A good time was had by all.
15. First tournament game at South Field House.
22. Washington's Birthday. We celebrated by having no school.

MARCH 3. The sophomores sponsored a Skating Party at Kelly's. Lots of fun!

13. The Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y sent several of their members to participate in the annual Civic Day program.
31. The play "Ananias Bill" was presented by the senior class. It was given a hearty response.

APRIL 1. April Fool's Day. It paid to be on your toes so that you wouldn't fall prey to some prankster.

14. The freshmen sponsored their first Skating Party. It was a big success.
17. The Mount Olivet Church presented a play in the school auditorium.
28. The annual Athletic Banquet was held to honor our school athletes and to present award letters.

MAY 5. The Glee Clubs and Mixed Chorus merged to present a spring operetta, "Gypsy Rover."

14. The student body attended an assembly in which trained collies performed.
19. One of the highlights of the year. The Junior-Senior Banquet was held at the Mahoning Country Club.
21. Baccalaureate services were held and the remoteness of graduation became closer to a reality.
22. At last! The long awaited night of commencement! And as the graduates took their places, all the memories and activities of the year culminated in this, the last of all their school events.

THIRST, TOO, SEEKS QUALITY

Months of study — Months of pleasant companionship—

All of them summarized in this yearbook, a memento to the effort you have put forth to make a success of your school work. It is our hope that Coca-Cola has in some small way made your task easier—contributed a friendly pause for refreshment to your work or play.

Anywhere, anytime, you will find a frosty bottle of Coca-Cola nearby to help you make any pause “The Pause That Refreshes.”
